

The Research Center for Japanese Language Education
Annual Bulletin 7
CONTENTS

PREFACE

Yoshifumi Hida

I. The Composition and Content of Japanese for College Students

Steps Leading to Publication of ICU's Introductory Textbook

Machiko Netsu

On the Objectives and Use of the FORMATION Section

Izumi Hirata

When and How to Make the Best Use of the Drills

Yoko Suzuki

The Role of "Roleplay" in JCS and How it Should be Used

Ryoko Murano

Grammar in JCS

Masayoshi Hirose

Developing the JCS Reading Sections

Takashi Ogawa

Developing the JCS Kanji Materials

Kumiko Osaki

About the Cassette Tapes Accompanying JCS

Izumi Hirata

II. The Teacher's Manual Accompanying JCS

On the Compilation and Use of the JCS Teacher's Manual

Machiko Netsu

III. Realizing the Potential of JCS in a Variety of Situations

Using JCS at the University of British Columbia

Hiroko Tokumoto

Problems Encountered in the Early Stages of Intensive Japanese I

Yoko Suzuki

Course Design for a Short-Term Intensive Japanese Course Using JCS

Ryoko Murano

Textbook Analysis in the Teaching Methods in Japanese Course

Taeko Nakamura

JCS from a Functional Syllabus Viewpoint

Shigeko Inagaki

The Vocabulary in JCS

Ikumi Ozawa

ABSTRACTS OF ARTICLES (English)

IV. Reviews

Four reviews of JCS by: Keiko Nishio, Hisako Yoshiki, Michiko Sasaki, J.V. Neustupny

V. RESEARCH CENTER NEWS (April 1997~March 1998)

1. Research seminars

2. ICU's Summer Courses in Japanese

3. Calendar of events

4. Research by RCJLE members

5. Books received

6. RCJLE membership list

Editorial staff by-laws

Guidelines for submissions

Profiles of the authors